No. BSNL/5 /SR/2002/Pt.

To

The Chief General Manager, BSNL
UP (West) Telecom. Circle
Dehradun.

Subject : Nomination / Election of an office bearer of the Non-executive Union – Whether a JTO can be the office bearer of a Non-executive Association / Union.

Reference : Your letter No. UPW/8-16/RLG/2002-2003/Union/ dated 5-8-2002.

The matter has been examined. It is observed that there is no provision in the Trade Union Act 1926 with regard to prohibition of an executive from being appointed as office bearer of Non-executive Union.

In view of the above, there is no objection to an executive becoming an office bearer against the outside quota of a Non-executive Union. However as per the Trade Union Act, only 1/3 of the office bearers or 5 whichever is less can be elected / nominated as office bearers of an Non-executive Union.
